An act of kindness

Summary: UMM students Stephanie Schroder, Sara Bremer, Chelsea Anttila, Tegan Peterson and Kate Shimshock donated their sheared locks recently to the "Locks of Love" Program.

(April 27, 2006)-University of Minnesota, Morris students Stephanie Schroder, Sara Bremer, Chelsea Anttila, Tegan Peterson and Kate Shimshock donated their locks recently to the "Locks of Love" Program.

Representatives from four local hair salons assisted by cutting and then restyling each student's hair. Stylist were Dawn Henrichs from B-Bop Hair Shoppe, Nancy Taffe from Taffe Clips and Julie Hufford and Chauntel Backman from Visible Changes. In anticipation of her commitment to study abroad this semester, Shimshock had her hair cut and donated it last semester.

This act of kindness results in the creation of beautiful wigs for cancer survivors who have lost their own hair due to radical treatment regimens.
