UMM ENROLLMENT OVER 200

At a special noon luncheon of the West Central Educational Development Association held in Morris June 8, Rodney A. Briggs, Acting Dean of the University of Minnesota, Morris, reported that the student enrollment has now passed 200 of the 250 expected freshmen for this fall.

Dean Briggs also reported on staff for the college faculty as well as the progress made thus far in student programming. Excellent progress has been made in preparation for the collegiate program starting this fall.

The new bulletin of the UMM is now available and may be obtained by contacting the University of Minnesota, Morris, stated Dean Briggs.
