KING AWARDED UMM SCHOLARSHIP

Barry King, Jr., of Morris, an honor student from Morris High School, has been awarded a $75 scholarship by the University of Minnesota, Morris. The announcement was made by Dean Rodney Briggs.

King, who will begin work this fall at UMM in the chemical engineering field, received the Bausch and Lomb Science award in May. His ability in sports--basketball, cross country, and track--was recognized when he received the Lions "Athlete of the Year" award in his senior year.

In addition to maintaining a high scholastic rating and taking an active part in sports, Barry played in the school band, sang in the chorus, and was a member of the student council and Key Club. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Barry King of Morris and he has one brother and one sister.
