LONG APPOINTED TO UMM ENGLISH STAFF

Theodore Long of Morris, an Instructor at the West Central School of Agriculture for many years, has been appointed to the English staff of the University of Minnesota, Morris.

He is well known in the Morris area for his work in debate, readings, dramatics and for the many outstanding plays which he has directed at the West Central School and Station.

Mr. Long received his undergraduate degree from Carleton College at Northfield, Minnesota, and his Master's Degree from the University of Wisconsin.
