UMM OPEN HOUSE WELL ATTENDED

A total of 175 high school students and forty visitors from forty-one Minnesota communities attended the three "Open House" sessions at the University of Minnesota, Morris during their recent Christmas vacation. The final "Open House" on January 4 drew the largest gathering and was distinctive in that it provided the visiting students and many of their parents who attended with an opportunity to view college classes in session.

The visitors were given a briefing on the collegiate program at the Morris Campus by Dean Rodney A. Briggs. They then learned of the many student activities from H. G. Croom, Acting Director of Student Services, and of the counseling and advisement program from Dr. Stephen Granger, Counselor. A tour of the campus followed the briefing.
