Four Glenwood young people were among twenty-nine freshman placed on the Dean's List for the fall quarter at the University of Minnesota, Morris. The List, which signifies high academic achievement, contained the names of the first honor students of the new University of Minnesota, Morris.

Included were Judith Bogie, an English major and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bogie; LeRoy Bredeson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erven Bredeson, who plans to major in history; A. David Hedine, a Liberal Arts major and the son of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Hedine; and Jerry Jacobson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Jacobson, who is majoring in international relations.

Each of the students received a letter from Rodney A. Briggs, Dean of the University of Minnesota, Morris, congratulating him for his individual excellence as indicated by his performance the past quarter and urging him to continue to set his standards high.
