CAST OF UMM PLAY ANNOUNCED

Susan Stahler of Morris heads the cast of "The Curious Savage", the first production of the Morris Players of the University of Minnesota, Morris it was announced last week by Theodore S. Long, director of the play. The UMM student theatrical group will present to comedy on March 6 and 7 in Edson Hall Auditorium.

Miss Stahler takes the role of Mrs. Savage who is placed by her step children in "The Cloisters" a home for persons who are having difficulty adjusting to life. Rodney Twitchell of Appleton plays the important role of the step son, Senator Titus. DeAnne Frederickson of Murdock is his scheming sister and William Zinda of Morris is the dominated brother.

The staff of "The Cloisters" where all action of the play occurs, includes Gary Lund of Brandon as Dr. Emmett and Patricia Hopkins of Villard as the nurse.

Adding zest to the performance are the guests who are played by Anne Douglas of Edina, Vincent Jaeger of Glenwood, and Gary Spaulding, Janet Lawler, and Anita Keiffer, all of Morris.

"The Curious Savage", a comedy by John Patrick, was originally produced by the Theatre Guild and Lewis and Young in New York in 1950.
