

University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well

University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well

---

Campus News Archive

Campus News, Newsletters, and Events

---

4-12-1961

Sundby and Jeitz Elected to Honor "A" Society

University of Minnesota, Morris

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.morris.umn.edu/urel\_news

---

Recommended Citation

University of Minnesota, Morris, "Sundby and Jeitz Elected to Honor "A" Society" (1961). Campus News Archive. 2706.

https://digitalcommons.morris.umn.edu/urel\_news/2706

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Campus News, Newsletters, and Events at University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well. It has been accepted for inclusion in Campus News Archive by an authorized administrator of University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well. For more information, please contact skulann@morris.umn.edu.

Alan Sundby Elected to Honor "A" Society

Alan Sundby, son of Mr. & Mrs. Clifford Sundby of Underwood, Minnesota, was elected to the Honor "A" Society of the West Central School of Agriculture at Morris. Membership in the Honor "A" Society is limited to graduating seniors who are in the upper one third of their class and have shown exceptional leadership qualities in various organizations in school and at home.

While in school, Alan was active in athletics winning his letter in cross country, and as student manager of the basketball team. Alan was a member of the Letterman's Club and participated in numerous other class and school activities.

Other boys elected to the Honor "A" Society this year were Jerome Schuelke, Poyd; James Noble, Ayr, North Dakota; Richard Walvatne, Underwood; Harvey Koehl, Hancock; and Bradford Jeitz, Hancock.

Bradford Jeitz Elected to Honor "A" Society

Bradford Jeitz, son of Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Jeitz of Hancock, Minnesota, was elected to the Honor "A" Society of the West Central School of Agriculture at Morris. Membership in the Honor "A" Society is limited to graduating seniors who are in the upper one third of their class and have shown exceptional leadership qualities in various organizations in school and at home.

While in school, Bradford was active in athletics; winning a letter in football, cross country and wrestling. Bradford also was a member of the Letterman's Club and Key Club as well as participating in numerous other class and school activities.

Other boys elected to the Honor "A" Society this year were Jerome Schuelke, Poyd; James Noble, Ayr, North Dakota; Richard Walvatne, Underwood; Harvey Koehl, Hancock; and Alan Sundby, Underwood.

Jerome Schuelke Elected To Honor "A" Society

Jerome Schuelke, son of Mr. & Mrs. Donald Schuelke of Boyd, Minnesota, was elected to the Honor "A" Society of the West Central School of Agriculture at Morris. Membership in the Honor "A" Society is limited to graduating seniors who are in the upper one third of their class and have shown exceptional leadership qualities in various organizations in school and at home.

While in school, Jerome was active in athletics; being Co-captain of the wrestling team, elected as most valuable player and a member of the All Conference football team, and president of the letterman's club. In addition, he was on the Student Council, in the class play, and a member of the Headwater's Club. While participating in these many activities, Jerome was able to maintain his grades high enough to graduate as the top boy in his class.

Other boys elected to the Honor "A" Society this year were James Noble, Ayr, North Dakota; Richard Walvatne, Underwood; Harvey Koehl, Hancock; Alan Sundby, Underwood; and Bradford Jeitz, Hancock.

James Noble Elected to Honor "A" Society

James Noble, son of Mr. & Mrs. James L. Noble of Ayr, North Dakota, was elected to the Honor "A" Society of the West Central School of Agriculture at Morris. Membership in the Honor "A" Society is limited to graduating seniors who are in the upper one third of their class and have shown exceptional leadership qualities in various organizations in school and at home.

While in school, James was active in Student Government; being on the Student Council, a dormitory officer, a class officer and a member of the Key Club, Letterman's Club, and Headwater's Club. He also participated in the school band and chorus. Jim won his letters in football and wrestling as a freshman and continued to earn his letter each of the three remaining years in each sport.

Other boys elected to the Honor "A" Society this year were Jerome Schuelke, Boyd; Richard Walvatne, Underwood; Harvey Koehl, Hancock; Alan Sundby, Underwood; and Bradford Jeitz, Hancock.

Richard Walvatne Elected to Honor "A" Society

Richard Walvatne, son of Mr. & Mrs. Art Walvatne of Underwood, Minnesota, was elected to the Honor "A" Society of the West Central School of Agriculture at Morris. Membership in the Honor "A" Society is limited to graduating seniors who are in the upper one third of their class and have shown exceptional leadership qualities in various organization in school and at home.

While in school, Richard was active in Student Government; being on the Student Council, class president, Key Club president, and a member of the Assembly Committee. Dick was a letter winner in basketball and the student manager of the cross country team. He also sang in the school chorus and participated in class plays. While taking part in the many extra-curricular activities, Dick also maintained a grade average above B.

Other boys elected to the Honor "A" Society this year were Jerome Schuelke, Boyd; James Noble, Ayr, North Dakota; Harvey Koehl, Hancock; Alan Sundby, Underwood; and Bradford Jeitz, Hancock.

Harvey Koehl Elected To Honor "A" Society

Harvey Koehl, son of Mr. & Mrs. Charles H. Koehl of Hancock, Minnesota, was elected to the Honor "A" Society of the West Central School of Agriculture at Morris. Membership in the Honor "A" Society is limited to graduating seniors who are in the upper one third of their class and have shown exceptional leadership qualities in various organization in school and at home.

While in school, Harvey was active in athletics; being a member of the cross country, wrestling, and swimming teams. He also participated in musical activities and student government while maintaining a very satisfactory scholastic record.

Other boys elected to the Honor "A" Society this year were Jerome Schuelke, Boyd; James Noble, Ayr, North Dakota; Richard Walvatne, Underwood; Alan Sundby, Underwood; and Bradford Jeitz, Hancock.