AREA HIGH SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS ATTEND UMM MEETING

Thirty high school administrators and counselors of West Central Minnesota attended a meeting at the University of Minnesota, Morris Tuesday afternoon, April 25, to hear reports on the academic progress of the first year's students and plans for the future of UMM.

Attending the two-hour session were superintendents, principals, and counselors from Appleton, Barrett, Benson, Browns Valley, Chokio, Cyrus, Fergus Falls, Glenwood, Graceville, Herman, Hoffman, Kerkhoven, Marietta, Milan, Morris, Odessa, Ortonville, Osakis, Raymond, Sauk Centre and Starbuck.

Dean Rodney A. Briggs gave a legislative report and discussed the UMM's long term plans with the visitors. Admission standards and procedures for next year were explained by H. G. Croom, acting director of Student Services.

Continuing the program, W. D. Spring, acting head of the English department, discussed the UMM English program and the progress of area students in the program. Dr. Stephen Granger, counselor, considered the usefulness of tests in predicting academic success this year and distributed to the visitors information of use in advising future students on attending the University of Minnesota, Morris.

A coffee hour with members of the UMM faculty concluded the meeting.
