UMM FILM SERIES TO SHOW "DEATH OF A SALESMAN"

The story of a salesman, obsessed with pretensions of being a "big man" though he is really a failure, is the subject of the seventh picture to be shown to subscribers of the University of Minnesota, Morris film series. Starring Frederic March, "Death of a Salesman" will be shown at 8:30 p.m. Monday, May 8, in Edson Hall on the UMM campus.

The Academy Award-winning film is based on the play by Arthur Miller. March portrays a salesman who desperately wants to be liked, knowing that his living depends on it. But he does not have the personal integrity to win the admiration that he covets.

The drama has been cited for the superior performances of its characters, its absorbing story content and excellent direction.
