UMM STUDENTS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Jerry Jacobson of Glenwood has been elected new president of the student government of the University of Minnesota, Morris. The student body, voting on May 11, also accepted a revised constitution of the student government.

Other officers elected include: first vice-president - Roger Pederson, Alberta; second vice-president - Susan Hendricks, Willmar; secretary - DeAnne Frederickson, Murdock; treasurer - Tom Hess, Marshall; and members at large - Robert Rhyne, Morris and Vincent Jaeger, Glenwood.

The new officers are currently undergoing a training period under the guidance of the previous officers and are making preparations for the UMM's fall orientation week which will begin September 20. The newly elected students will govern throughout the next school year.
