A student-faculty softball game will open a festive two-day program at the University of Minnesota, Morris. Planned by the students, UMM activity days are being held today (Friday) and Saturday.

Classes have been excused today for the special events which include the ball game, a bed pushing contest, and whist tournament with an open house, snake dance, and street dance scheduled for tonight.

Athletic events will initiate Saturday's program with gymnasium activities and a picnic planned for the afternoon. A hayride, campfire and songfest and a Saturday night dance will climax the events.

General chairmen of activity days are Marvin Dyrstad, Glenwood and Judy Stoner, Morris. A complete program of the two-day festivities follows:
