UMM ARTIST COURSE ANNOUNCED

Dancers, singers, a humorist and a lecturer will highlight the 1961-62 Artist Course Series of the University of Minnesota, Morris which was announced this week by Rodney A. Briggs, Dean.

The series will include performances by the Ceylon National Dancers, Piano-humorist Henry L. Scott, the Minneapolis Madrigal Singers, the Zachary Solov Ballet Ensemble, and New York Folksinger Earle Spicer, and a lecture by Sir Bernard Waley-Cohen, Lord Mayor of London.

As a bonus, each holder of a season ticket will receive an extra free ticket which he may use to attend any one of the six scheduled concerts by the University of Minnesota, Morris music department.

Season tickets for the Artist Course will go on sale to the public on Monday, September 18. Tickets for last year's series were sold out shortly after they were put on sale, so prospective purchasers this year are urged to apply for their tickets immediately since seating is limited. There will be no single performance tickets sold for the evening series.

Tickets will be available at the Dean's Office of the University of Minnesota, Morris and at Sarlettes Music Store at Morris at a cost of $8.00 for adults and $5.25 for students. Forty cents of each adult ticket and twenty-five cents of each student ticket will go to the UMM General Scholarship fund.
