AAUW GIVES BOOKS TO UMM

More than 70 volumes were contributed to the University of Minnesota, Morris library this year by members of the Morris branch of the American Association of University Women, according to Dean Rodney A. Briggs.

Containing primarily English and American fiction titles, the list of books included complete sets of both Mark Twain and Charles Dickens. UMM librarian Donald Gray emphasized that the contribution, which was a special project of the AAUW's Morris branch, meant the acquisition by the library of many important volumes which would otherwise have been difficult to obtain.
