For Immediate Release

Patrick J. McGinnis has been appointed instructor in English at the University of Minnesota, Morris subject to approval of the University of Minnesota Board of Regents.

A graduate of St. John's University, Collegeville, Minnesota, Mr. McGinnis received his master of arts degree from the University of Minnesota where he is now completing work on his doctorate. He has been an instructor on the Minneapolis campus for several years. Mr. McGinnis is married and has three children.

There will be thirty-five full-time faculty members next fall including twenty-one new faculty appointments now being made following the Minnesota Legislature's approval of funds for the continued operation of the University of Minnesota, Morris. UMM operated last year with freshman classes and will add a sophomore class this fall and a junior class in 1962.
