CHEERLEADERS SELECTED AT UMM

Five cheerleaders for the coming sports season at the University of Minnesota, Morris were selected this week by a faculty-student panel of judges.

Captain of the squad is Janet Pomeranke, sophomore from Odessa, who was a UMM cheerleader last year. She was also active in the student government, on the Inter-Faith Council and served as secretary of Gamma Delta.

Lone male among the cheerleaders is sophomore Don McCarville of Ortonville. Don, also a cheerleader last year, was a student government representative, president of Alpha Rho Psi fraternity and vice president of the UMM band. He was on the wrestling squad and was active in mixed chorus, men's chorus, quartet, and symphony orchestra.

The three freshman cheerleaders are Beverly Kleinsasser of Hoffman, Janice Goligowski of Browerville, and Susan Stewart of Wheaton. All were cheerleaders in high school where they were active in vocal and instrumental music, debate, dramatics and student organizations.
