BALLET TROUPE TO APPEAR AT UMM TONIGHT

A program unusual in the Morris area will be presented tonight (Tuesday) before subscribers to the University of Minnesota, Morris Artist Course. The Zachary Solov Ballet Ensemble will begin its performance at 8 p.m. in Edison Hall Auditorium on the UMM campus.

Season tickets for this event and the four remaining programs in the 1961-62 Artist series will be available at a reduced price at the door tonight.

The ballet ensemble was hand-picked and trained by Zachary Solov, choreographer at the Metropolitan Opera House, to present some of his best ballets. Dancers Irina Borowska and Michael Maule head the troupe.
