Koehler receives MAFAA President's Award

Jana Koehler, senior program manager in the University of Minnesota Morris Office of Financial Aid, has been named co-recipient of the President's Award from the Minnesota Association of Financial Aid Administrators (MAFAA).

The President's Award is considered to be one of MAFAA's highest awards and is selected based on an individual's contribution to the association during the president's term in office.

Koehler and Amanda Cantú, Assistant Director of Financial Aid at University of St. Thomas, were selected for their work on the MAFAA membership and directory. Koehler has held this appointed position since 2012.

Koehler and Cantú received the award during the recent MAFAA spring conference in Brainerd, Minnesota.
