MORRIS (1/30/76) -- Works by five Morris artists have been sent to the Joslyn Art Museum in Omaha, Neb. for the second stage in the judging process of the 14th Midwest Biennial Exhibition.

University of Minnesota, Morris senior Steve Berger and faculty members John Ingle, Meredith Jack and Fred Peterson, and Cheryl Robideau of Morris are among 350 artists from 16 states selected to submit their work.

They were chosen from approximately 1400 entrants who submitted slides of their work for preliminary judging. From the 350 selected to submit their work for the second stage in judging, 100 will be selected to appear in the 14th Midwest Biennial to be held at the Joslyn Museum March 6 through April 11.
