MORRIS (5/13/76) — Intercultural Emphasis week will begin Monday (5/17) at the University of Minnesota, Morris.

Planned to acquaint members of the campus community with other cultures and to promote intercultural experience opportunities through travel, the week will offer diverse activities.

Monday and Tuesday from 10 a.m. to noon travel films will be shown in Edson Auditorium.

An introduction to world travel will be provided Monday from 2-4 p.m. in Edson to acquaint interested persons with some of the existing programs and travel opportunities available.

Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. there will be a simulation game on intercultural communication in Edson Auditorium and Lounge.

Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. Eric Klinger will speak on Higher Education in Germany in Edson Lounge. Klinger recently spent sabbatical leave through a Fulbright Fellowship in Germany.

From 7 to 8:30 p.m. Tuesday the UMM Language Club will present folk dancing on the mall.

Wednesday representatives from the Student Project for Amity among Nations (SPAN) will meet with interested persons in Behmler Conference Room from 2 to 4 p.m.

Wednesday evening the Morris Minnesota International Student Association (MO-MISA) will offer an international festival from 7 to 10 p.m. in Edson Lounge.

Traditional and Modern Drama in China is the topic of a presentation at 8:30 p.m. in the Humanities Fine Arts Center on Wednesday.

All of the events are free and open to the public.
