For Immediate Release

Subscribers to the University of Minnesota, Morris film series will see "The Confessions of Felix Krull", German adaptation of Thomas Mann's novel, at 8:30 p.m. Monday, February 19, in Edson Hall auditorium.

Starring the European favorite, Horst Buchholz, as the rogue Felix Krull, the story follows the adventures of the disarming scoundrel from Imperial Germany at the turn of the century to a Paris hotel and an eccentric Professor Cuckoo's household in Lisbon.

The film is the third offering in the winter quarter series.
