April 18, 1962

For Immediate Release

The Rev. Vincent A. Yzermans will be the keynote speaker at the University of Minnesota, Morris Clergy Day on April 25, it was announced this week. Father Yzermans has been editor of the St. Cloud Visitor, official newspaper of the Catholic Diocese of St. Cloud, since 1958.

Clergymen from within a 50-mile radius of Morris are expected to attend the special events on the UMM campus on April 25. Clergy Day is sponsored jointly by the University's Inter-Faith Council, composed of two representatives from each of the campus religious foundations, and the Council of Religious Advisors, made up of Morris church leaders.

The program for the day will include registration and coffeehour, Father Yzermans' address to the student body, a visitors luncheon with student leaders, an address by W. D. Spring of the UMM faculty to the visiting clergy, tours of the campus, and a coffee hour open to all students. The various religious foundations will hold their regular meetings in the evening.

A graduate of Crosier Preparatory Seminary, Onamia, Minnesota, and the St. Paul Seminary, St. Paul, Father Yzermans did post-graduate work in journalism at Notre Dame University in Indiana and Fordham University in New York City.

Ordained in 1951, Father Yzermans has served as assistant pastor at St. Boniface Church, Melrose, Minnesota, and St. Mary's Cathedral, St. Cloud; as instructor at Cathedral High School, St. Cloud, and as pastor of St. John the Baptist Church, Swanville, Minnesota. Author of several published books, he is a frequent contributor to clerical and scholarly publications.
