National and state meetings and conventions are occupying the time of several University of Minnesota, Morris faculty members this month.

H. G. Croon, Director of Student Services, has been attending a national conference of admissions counselors in Kansas City this past week.

The Mississippi Valley Historical Association's annual meeting in Milwaukee this week is being attended by Dr. John C. Inholte, assistant professor of history at UMM.

Dr. Stephen G. Granger, associate professor of psychology and counselor, and C. Dean Kjolhaug, student personnel worker, were present at the annual meeting of the American Personnel and Guidance Association in Chicago last week.

Dr. Granger, and Dr. Iver Bogen, assistant professor of psychology and counselor, are also attending the annual meeting of the Minnesota Psychological Association in St. Paul today.
