For Immediate Release

A Henning girl has been elected an officer of the student government at the University of Minnesota, Morris. A sophomore at UMM, Mary Vogel was named treasurer of the governing body. She is a graduate of Henning High School.

The first student to enroll at the new University of Minnesota, Morris when the opening of college classes was announced, Mary has been named to the Dean's List, signifying high academic achievement, during every quarter since she started college.

Mary has played in the band during both years at UMM and is a member of the UMM symphony orchestra. She has sung with the mixed chorus, worked on the student newspaper and held office on her dormitory council. She was a cheerleader and serves as secretary of the Newman Club.

Other student government officers elected were Leonard Munsterman, Correll, president; Warren Eger, Madison, first vice president; Connie Bunge, Donnelly, second vice president; Janet Lawler, Morris, secretary; and Gene Olson, Sunburg, and Judy Nordly, Graceville, members-at-large. The newly-elected officers will take office next fall.
