University of Minnesota, Morris golfers head north today for two tournaments -- today's University of North Dakota Invitation and the Bemidji State College Invitational on Saturday.

After playing in the North Dakota contest at Lincoln Park Golf course in Grand Forks, the seven-man UMM team will spend the night in Bemidji. Saturday's tournament at the Bemidji Town and Country Club is expected to be the biggest college tournament in three states this year. North and South Dakota and Minnesota teams will be competing.

In last Tuesday's Concordia Invitational at Fargo the improved UMM team came in fifth. Dennis Ross and Tim Bergien of the Morris team tied for fourth place with 78's in medalist play.
