For Immediate Release

The appointment of Richard A. Grant as instructor in English at the University of Minnesota, Morris was announced this week by Dean Rodney A. Briggs.

His assignment is one of 14 new faculty appointments now being made at UMM which will bring the total to 49 full-time faculty members in September.

A graduate of Colby College, Waterville, Maine, Mr. Grant received his master of arts degree from Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. He is currently teaching at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis campus, while completing work on his doctoral degree.

Mr. Grant is a member of the College Art Association and several ornithological societies. He is married and has four children.
