For Immediate Release

With the regular academic year barely concluded, dozens of area college students were joined this week by new high school graduates and many teachers in opening the first summer session to be held at the University of Minnesota, Morris.

Dr. E. W. Ziebarth, Dean of the University of Minnesota summer sessions on the Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth and Itasca campuses, extended to UMM summer students and faculty his welcome and best wishes. The veteran news analyst wrote that he was confident that UMM's initial summer college classes would be entirely successful and that the experience would be an enriching and rewarding one for both students and faculty.

Dr. Ziebarth has been chairman of the Department of Speech and Theater Arts at the University since 1949 and Dean of the summer sessions for the past eight years.

After completing orientation and registration on Monday, UMM summer students began classes Tuesday morning. The five-week session will run through July 13.
