MORRIS -- Courtland Swenson, Hoffman, has been elected Captain of the 1963 football Cougars at the University of Minnesota, Morris. Coach Dick Borstad made the announcement prior to the team's departure for Yankton College last Saturday, September 14.

"Court" plays the tackle position for the Cougars. He stands 6'2" and weighs 200 pounds. With the advent of a senior class at the University of Minnesota, Morris, he becomes the first senior captain for the Cougars.

After the announcement of his election, he told the team he was honored and would strive to supply the necessary leadership. At the game against Yankton, he proved that he would supply this field leadership. He played both offense and defense and was in on numerous tackles.

The next game on the schedule is against the University of Upper Iowa. Last week UUI was a 6 to 0 victor over Buena Vista and Coach Borstad said that his Cougars will have a tougher battle than they had last week against Yankton.

The first home game will be held Saturday, September 28, against North Dakota State School of Science.
