

University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well

University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well

Campus News Archive

Campus News, Newsletters, and Events

7-24-1963

Professor Appointments

University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.morris.umn.edu/urel_news

Recommended Citation

University Relations, "Professor Appointments" (1963). Campus News Archive. 3359.
https://digitalcommons.morris.umn.edu/urel_news/3359

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Campus News, Newsletters, and Events at University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well. It has been accepted for inclusion in Campus News Archive by an authorized administrator of University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well. For more information, please contact skulann@morris.umn.edu.

July 24, 1963

SPECIAL TO FENNIMORE TIMES, Fennimore, Wisconsin:

Dr. Clyde E. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Fennimore, has been promoted to the rank of associate professor of music at the University of Minnesota, Morris. The promotion, which became effective July 1, was approved by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota this month.

Dr. Johnson joined the faculty of the University of Minnesota's new liberal arts college at Morris two years ago. He previously was chairman of the department of music at Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa.

Dr. Johnson received his bachelor of music, master of arts, and doctor of philosophy degrees from the State University of Iowa at Iowa City and studied for one year in Germany under a Fulbright scholarship.

At the University of Minnesota, Morris, Dr. Johnson teaches instrumental music and music education courses and is director of the UMM concert band which just concluded its most active year since it was organized. The group presented concerts in numerous communities throughout western and southern Minnesota and climaxed a busy schedule with an evening concert in Northrop Auditorium in Minneapolis last April.

Dr. Johnson is married and the father of four boys.

Local

July 24, 1963

SPECIAL TO THE BRIDGEPORT POST, Bridgeport, Connecticut

Eric Klinger, formerly of Bridgeport, has been promoted to the rank of associate professor of Psychology at the University of Minnesota, Morris it was announced recently. The promotion, which became effective July 1, was approved by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota this month.

Dr. Klinger attended Bridgeport schools and is the brother of Roger Klinger of this city. He joined the faculty of the University of Minnesota's new liberal arts college at Morris last year. He previously taught at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and served as research associate with the Association of American Medical Colleges and as a clinical psychology trainee with the Veterans Administration.

A graduate of Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, Dr. Klinger completed his doctoral work at the University of Chicago. He is married and the father of one daughter.

July 24, 1963

SPECIAL TO KANABEC COUNTY TIMES, Mora, Minnesota

Charles C. Hanna, formerly of Mora, has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor at the University of Minnesota, Morris. He was also named director of the admissions office. The promotion, which became effective July 1, was approved by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota this month.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hanna of Mora, Hanna joined the staff at the University of Minnesota's Morris campus two years ago as assistant director of student services. The new liberal arts college of the University was then just one year old. Since then classes have been phased in year by year until this fall when the first senior class will matriculate and UMM will complete its rapid growth into a four-year institution.

Before joining the UMM faculty, Hanna was an instructor and counselor in the Redwood Falls public schools, Redwood Falls, Minnesota. He is a graduate of Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minnesota and received his master of science degree from Mankato State College, Mankato, Minnesota.

July 26, 1963

SPECIAL TO THE WINONA REPUBLICAN HERALD, Winona, Minnesota

Mrs. Mildred Richmann Gausman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richmann of Winona, has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor of mathematics at the University of Minnesota, Morris. The promotion, which became effective July 1, was approved by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota this month.

Mrs. Gausman joined the faculty at the University's new liberal arts college in Morris in 1960, the year it opened. Since then classes have been phased in year by year until this fall when the first senior class will matriculate and UMM will complete its rapid growth into a four-year institution.

Before joining the UMM staff, Mrs. Gausman taught mathematics at the Morris High School. She is a graduate of Hamline University in St. Paul and received her master of arts degree from the University of Illinois in Urbana. The Gausmans are the parents of four daughters.

July 26, 1963

SPECIAL TO THE POPE COUNTY TRIBUNE, Glenwood, Minnesota

James C. Gremmels, Glenwood, has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor of English at the University of Minnesota, Morris it was announced recently. The promotion, which became effective July 1, was approved by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota this month.

Mr. Gremmels joined the University of Minnesota, Morris faculty in 1960, the year the new college opened. He previously taught in the Glenwood public schools for five years. A graduate of Augustana College, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, he received his master of arts degree from the University of Minnesota.

July 26, 1963

SPECIAL TO THE SIOUX FALLS ARGUS-LEADER, Sioux Falls, South Dakota

James C. Gremmels, formerly of Sioux Falls, has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor of English at the University of Minnesota, Morris, it was announced recently. The promotion, which became effective July 1, was approved by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota this month.

Gremmels joined the faculty at the University's new liberal arts college in Morris in 1960, the year it opened. Since then classes have been phased in year by year until this fall when the first senior class will matriculate and UMM will complete its rapid growth into a four-year institution.

Before joining the UMM faculty, Gremmels taught in the Glenwood, Minnesota public schools for five years. He is a graduate of Washington High School, Sioux Falls, and Augustana College, and received his master of arts degree from the University of Minnesota. He is married and the father of three sons.

Local

July 26, 1963

SPECIAL TO THE EMPORIA GAZETTE, Emporia, Kansas

Richard W. Burkey, formerly of Emporia, has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor of physics at the University of Minnesota's Morris campus, it was announced recently. The promotion, which became effective July 1, was approved by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota this month.

Mr. Burkey graduated from Emporia High School in 1948 and received his bachelor of science and master of science degrees from Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia.

Before joining the University of Minnesota, Morris faculty in 1960, he taught physics and chemistry for three years at Derby High School, Derby, Kansas. He previously taught in Americus and Allen, Kansas. He also served as vice chairman of the Lyon County Teachers Association. He is married and has two children.

Area

News Release From:
University of Minnesota
University of Minnesota, Morris
Morris, Minnesota
August 2, 1963

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dr. Donald O. Johnson has been appointed assistant professor of history at the University of Minnesota, Morris, Dean Rodney A. Briggs has announced. He will teach upper division American history courses as well as some lower division courses.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, Dr. Johnson received his masters and doctoral degrees from Columbia University, New York City. He has taught history at Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania; Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, and most recently at Idaho State College, Pocatello, Idaho.

Dr. Johnson last year received the Mississippi Valley Historical Association annual award for his recently published book entitled "American Civil Liberties Union and the First World War". He has also been the recipient of several scholarships and research grants.

A member of the American, Southern and Mississippi Valley Historical Associations, Dr. Johnson is married and has three children.

Area

News Release from:
The University of Minnesota
University of Minnesota, Morris
Morris, Minnesota
August 9, 1963

For Immediate Release

Dr. Yu-min Chou has joined the faculty of the University of Minnesota, Morris, as an assistant professor of economics, Dean Rodney A. Briggs has announced. He comes to UMM from the department of economics of Baylor University, Waco, Texas.

A native of Taiwan, China, Dr. Chou attended Tamkang College in Taipei before coming to the United States where he is now a permanent resident. He has been awarded the bachelor of arts, master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees from the University of Illinois. He has also been the recipient of several fellowships and research grants since 1958.

Dr. Chou taught economics courses for one year at the University of Wisconsin before moving to Baylor University in 1960. At UMM he will be teaching most of the economics courses.

Dr. Chou is a member of the American Economic Association and the Order of Artus, recognition society in economics. He reads French, Russian and Japanese in addition to Chinese. He is married and has one child.

Area

News Release from:
University of Minnesota
University of Minnesota, Morris
Morris, Minnesota

For Immediate Release

August 16, 1963

The appointment of Dr. Thomas C. Jegla as assistant professor of biology at the University of Minnesota, Morris, was announced this week by Dean Rodney A. Briggs. He will teach courses in invertebrate zoology and assist with the introductory biology course.

Dr. Jegla comes to UMM from the University of Illinois, Urbana, where he served as a research assistant and teaching assistant while completing his graduate work in zoology. He received the master of science degree from Illinois in 1960 and the doctor of philosophy degree this past June. His undergraduate work for the bachelor of science degree was completed at Michigan State University at East Lansing. He also received a pre-doctoral fellowship to Duke University Marine Laboratory for the summer of 1961.

Dr. Jegla is a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Society of Zoologists and Wilson Ornithological Society and was elected to membership in Phi Sigma, honorary society in biology. He is unmarried.

Area

News Release From:
University of Minnesota
University of Minnesota, Morris
Morris, Minnesota
August 23, 1963

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dr. Bruce E. Dunn has joined the University of Minnesota, Morris, faculty as assistant professor of psychology, Dean Rodney A. Briggs has announced. He comes to UMM from Marshall University, Huntington, West Virginia, where he also served as assistant professor of psychology.

A graduate of Northwestern University in Illinois, Dr. Dunn received the master of science and doctor of philosophy degrees from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, where he served as a research assistant and teaching assistant in psychology.

Dr. Dunn, who is married, is a member of the American, West Virginia and Huntington Psychological Associations and the West Virginia Academy of Science. The author of several journal articles, he has been a frequent speaker at professional meetings.

At UMM he will teach learning theory and experimental psychology offerings.

News Release from:
University of Minnesota
University of Minnesota, Morris
Morris, Minnesota
August 29, 1963

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Trib - Fri, Aug. 30 issue

Noel W. Olson, Virginia Junior College coach at Virginia, Minnesota, has been appointed instructor in physical education at the University of Minnesota, Morris, it was announced this week by Rodney A. Briggs, Dean. Mr. Olson will serve as assistant coach for football and basketball this coming year in addition to teaching a number of physical education courses. Following this season he will serve as head basketball coach at UMM.

A native of Fergus Falls, Minnesota, Olson was graduated from St. Olaf College, Northfield, where he was elected captain of the basketball team and named All-Conference in that sport. He received the master of science degree from the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks and began work toward his doctorate degree in physical education at the University of Oregon last summer.

Mr. Olson has been with the Virginia, Minnesota school system for four years, serving as high school basketball coach and junior college football coach. He previously was the basketball coach at Fertile, Minnesota. He served as coach of base teams in basketball and baseball while serving for three years as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Air Force.

Mr. Olson is a member of the Minnesota, National, and Virginia Education Associations; the Minnesota High School Coaches Association, and the American and Minnesota Associations for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. He is married and has two children.

Area

News Release From:
University of Minnesota
University of Minnesota, Morris
Morris, Minnesota

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 30, 1963

(For Trib. Sept. 5 issue)
Tuesday

The appointment of Eugene A. Sterling as instructor in music at the University of Minnesota, Morris, has been announced by Dean Rodney A. Briggs. He will teach music history and music theory courses beginning this fall.

A native of San Jose, California, Mr. Sterling received the bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees from San Jose State College. He also participated in Temple University's summer session European music tour in 1954 as part of his education. He has been at the University of Indiana, Bloomington, for the past three years, working toward his doctorate and serving as a teaching assistant in music theory. He expects to receive the Ph.D. degree this summer.

Unmarried, Mr. Sterling is a member of the American Association of University Professors, Phi Kapp Phi, honorary society in music, and Phi Mu Alpha.

His assignment is one of several new faculty appointments now being made as the University of Minnesota, Morris this year completes the rapid growth into a four-year liberal arts college which began in 1960.

News Release from:
University of Minnesota, Morris
Morris, Minnesota

Area
For Release:
September 6, 1963
(Friday)

Dr. Vlad I. Thomas has joined the University of Minnesota, Morris faculty as an assistant professor of English, it was announced this week. He comes to UMM from Boston College in Massachusetts where he has taught for the past two years.

A graduate of Washington High School in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Dr. Thomas received the bachelor of science, master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees from the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

Dr. Thomas is a member of the Modern Language Association and the American Association of University Professors and served with the U. S. Army Signal Corps. He is married and has three children. The Thomases are living at 1104 Park Lane in Morris.