The "World's Fair Album" which has been recorded by the University of Minnesota, Morris Men's Chorus contains 19 selections, including "Halsa Dem Darhemma," and "100 Pipers".

The sale of the "World's Fair Album" will finance the UMM Men's Chorus trip to New York for an appearance in the World's Fair. They will present a one hour concert on June 19, 1964.

The UMM Men's Chorus "World's Fair Album" contains folk songs, show tunes, popular songs and other standard choral works for male chorus.

The sale of the "World's Fair Album" will begin in (name of town) on Thursday November 14. Chorus members will contact everyone interested in buying the album.

The "World's Fair Album" of the UMM Men's Chorus is a 33 and 1/3 long playing record, which is priced at $3.98.

The UMM Men's Chorus "World's Fair Album" would make an excellent Christmas present, as well as a fine addition to any home record library.

Sung in Swedish, "Halsa Dem Darhemma," A Sailor's Greeting, has become a favorite of west central Minnesota audiences. This is one of the numbers on the UMM Men's Chorus "World's Fair Album".

"100 Pipers," the UMM Men's Chorus favorite, is included in their first album -- the "World's Fair Album".

You can enjoy a UMM Men's Chorus concert in your home simply by purchasing their "World's Fair Album" which will be on sale in west central Minnesota communities in the next two to three weeks.
