Proctoring Exams in an Online Environment

Chlene Anderson & Pamela Gades
University of Minnesota Morris
Innovate! Teaching with Technology Conference 2017
Solutions for Preventing Cheating?
On-campus live proctoring
a. individual sessions
b. group sessions
c. dedicated testing center on your campus

Off-campus live proctoring
a. Accredited test centers (such as NCTA)
b. Personal proctors
c. Live remote proctoring - such as ProctorU

Record and review remote proctoring - such as Software Secure/RPNow

Automated (machine-based) remote proctoring - such as Proctorio (this has been selected by the University of Minnesota beginning Fall 2017).
Why Use Proctored Exams?

Image from the University of Minnesota’s “VideoBlocks for Education” GraphicStock Content
RPNow Demo Video

http://www.softwaresecure.com/product-demos/?wvideo=jd9ovgsdu

Image from the University of Minnesota’s “VideoBlocks for Education” GraphicStock Content
Spring 2016 Pilot

CC: Photo by Kirk Crawford
What did the students say?
Student Survey Results
End of Course Survey

How far from the University of Minnesota, Morris (UMM) campus did you live while taking this online course?
End of Course Survey

Where did you take your remotely proctored exams? Check all that apply.
What did the instructors say?
Always include a practice exam. Perhaps on the syllabus.

Customize instructions for each course and post these directly on your course site.
Resources for You

z.umn.edu/onlineproctoring