Accomplishments

Paul Martin '04, Beth Ann Ploof Cordes '94, Heather Pennie-Roy '94, Jim Tanner, and Pat Tanner will be inducted into the Cougar Hall of Fame on Friday, October 3, at the Cougar Hall of Fame/Distinguished Alumni Award/Networking Banquet. Martin had the rare distinction of being named an All-Conference Player of the Year in both the NSIC and UMAC. Cordes, who played volleyball for the Cougars, was a member of the 1992 squad that set a school record with 28 wins. Pennie-Roy was a two-sport athlete for the Cougars, earning All-Conference honors in both softball and volleyball. The Tanners were long-time volunteers in basketball operations for the athletic department and served on the Cougar Hall of Fame Committee for several years.

Fourteen Morris students attended the People's Climate March in New York last week: Katy Evanson '17, Saint Joseph, Shelby Flanagan '17, Eagan, Rebecca Schrupp '17, Milbank, South Dakota, Hannah Tuomi '17, Saint Paul, Austin Tipper '18, Palatine, Illinois, Karen Budig '17, Saint Louis Park, Autumn Carlson '18, Cottage Grove, Megan Forcia '18, New Brighton, Lauren Lindquist '16, Apple Valley, Hannah McDonnell '18, Saint Louis Park, Zoey Cook '18, Duluth, and Mason Dockter '17, Corona, South Dakota. Erik Hatlestad, Minnesota Public Interest Research Group (MPIRG) organizer, was also in attendance. The students' participation was organized by MPIRG, with additional support from Clean Up the River Environment (CURE). It was the largest march for climate to date.

In the News

Cy Thao '95 recently was profiled by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. Thao was not only the first Hmong-American individual elected to the Minnesota Legislature, but also the artist behind a series of paintings based on the history of the Hmong community. He and his wife now own assisted-living facilities in Minnesota and Florida.

Amy Doll-Wohlrs '90 will moderate debates between candidates for the Minnesota House of Representatives Districts 16A and 16B. Pioneer Public Television will broadcast the debates live on Thursday, October 2.

The Morris Sun Tribune reports that the University of Minnesota, Morris will take part in the Minnesota Renewable Energy Tour on Saturday, October 4. The tour will be held in conjunction with 150,000 other renewable energy system installers and owners throughout America to showcase more than 5,000 alternative-powered sites in the 19th annual National Solar Tour.
