Accomplishments

Morris has been recognized as a sustainability leader in the 2015 Sustainable Campus Index, achieving placement in the categories of campus engagement, coordination and planning, and buildings. The 2015 Sustainable Campus Index highlights top-performing colleges and universities in 17 areas, as measured by the Sustainability Tracking, Assessment & Rating System (STARS).

Jim Hall, director of information technology, will speak on a panel about the cross-generational workplace at the December meeting of the Minnesota Premier CIO Forum.

Jeff Ledermann '87 has been named Non-Formal Environmental Educator of the Year in this year's Minnesota Association for Environmental Education Awards. The awards are sponsored by the Wisconsin Association for environmental education, the statewide nonprofit professional organization of environmental educators that supports environmental education through advocacy, networking, and recognition.

In the News

As reported in the Minnesota Daily, Morris's waste-management policies and efforts make it "a model for changes at the Twin Cities campus." Martin Zais '16 notes that Morris's most effective tool in this effort "is building relationships with students, faculty, and staff by having conversations about environmental concerns."

Janel Mendoza, executive account specialist for Facilities Management, also is quoted in the Minnesota Daily. Mendoza comments on the University's maternity leave policy.

Dan Tolzman '04 is the focus of a story by the National Post. The story follows Tolzman's journey from Morris to Toronto, where he serves as director of scouting for the Toronto Raptors.

The campus community is deeply saddened to learn the news of the likely death of one of our students, Laura Ann Schwendemann '19, Starbuck. Schwendemann had been reported missing by her family on October 15. While the investigation of her disappearance is ongoing, investigators do not believe there is an ongoing risk to public safety. We are keeping Schwendemann's family and friends in our hearts and our thoughts. This is a sad time for our campus and for our friends and neighbors in Starbuck.
