Women's Basketball Team to Host UMAC Tournament Wednesday

Summary: Cougars women's basketball team will host St. Scholastica on Wednesday, February 20 in the P.E. Center at 7:30 to start the UMAC Tournament.

(February 18, 2013)-After completing a 14-0 season in the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) the Cougars women's basketball team will host St. Scholastica on Wednesday, February 20 in the P.E. Center at 7:30 to start the UMAC Tournament.

The Cougars are the number one seed in the four team tournament and has won 16 straight games dating back to early in January. The winner of the UMAC Tournament will receive an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament.

The women's basketball team is currently ranked seventh in the West Region and is looking for their third NCAA Tournament appearance in four years.

Ticket prices are $5 for adults and $3 for students with college ID and children.
