Cirque Zuma Zuma Kicks Off Performing Arts Series

Summary: This September, Cirque Zuma Zuma kicks off an exciting year of fine arts performances coming to the University of Minnesota, Morris.

(September 18, 2012)-The University of Minnesota, Morris is proud to present its annual Performing Arts Series. Morris will host a variety of visiting performance events throughout the year, which are open to the campus and greater community. Cirque Zuma Zuma, the first event of the series, will take place on Saturday, September 29, at 7:30 p.m. in Edson Auditorium.

A finalist in the 2011 America's Got Talent! competition, Cirque Zuma Zuma is a Kenyan-inspired acrobatics troupe that specializes in human pyramids, percussion, limbo dancing, and tumbling. Audiences can expect to be mesmerized by this unique experience.

Single-event and season tickets are available for purchase online, by phone and mail, or in person at the Office of Student Activities, Conferences, and Special Events. For more information regarding the series and ticket sales, please call 320-589-6080 or go online.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
