Dance Ensemble presents "Move Your Feet!"

Summary: One hundred and forty-six student dancers will present 16 dances from ballet to Beyonce.

(November 17, 2011)-The University of Minnesota Morris Dance Ensemble student organization presents “Move Your Feet!” on Friday and Saturday, December 2–3, 2011, in the Student Center’s Edson Auditorium.

One hundred and forty-six student dancers will perform in Move Your Feet! The students will present 16 dances from ballet to Beyonce, plus a production dance representing the theme of the show. Each piece was choreographed by students with two guest choreographers, Heather James, librarian, and Sara Konsbruck, coordinator of academic services.

“This fantastic show will be the highlight of the semester and the talk of the town,” says student Anshul Paranjape, “so come and enjoy a great show!

Evening shows begin at 7 p.m. on Friday, December 2, and Saturday, December 3. A matinee will be performed at 1 p.m. on Saturday, December 3.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or in the Student Center beginning the week of the performances. Tickets are $4 for students and seniors, and $6 for general admission.
