6-7-2011

West Central School of Agriculture alumni plant Alumni Garden at University of Minnesota, Morris

University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.morris.umn.edu/urel_news

Recommended Citation
http://digitalcommons.morris.umn.edu/urel_news/639

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the External Relations at University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well. It has been accepted for inclusion in University Relations News Archive by an authorized administrator of University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well. For more information, please contact skulann@morris.umn.edu.
West Central School of Agriculture alumni plant Alumni Garden at University of Minnesota, Morris

Summary: The garden is a gift from the WCSA Alumni Association to campus.

(June 7, 2011)-Each spring, West Central School of Agriculture (WCSA) alumni volunteers plant the WCSA Alumni Garden on the University of Minnesota, Morris campus. The garden is a gift from the WCSA Alumni Association to the campus. It is located in front of the Education building.

The beautifully designed flower garden surrounds a memorial to the WCSA students and alumni who served in World War I, World War II, the Korean Conflict, and the Viet Nam Conflict.

The public is invited to visit the garden.

The University of Minnesota’s WCSA made its home on the Morris campus from 1910 until 1963, serving high school students in a boarding school environment.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship. Learn more about Morris at morris.umn.edu or call 888-866-3382.