“Prairie Yard and Garden” discusses putting a garden to bed for winter

Summary: Randee Hokanson and Sue Gooch will discuss a garden’s long nap.

(March 30, 2011)-“Prairie Yard and Garden” (PY&G), on Pioneer Public Television, will discuss ways to put your garden to bed for the winter on Thursday, April 7, 2011. Stevens County Master Gardener Randee Hokanson and guest host Sue Gooch will discuss things to consider for your garden’s winter nap.

Created and produced at the University of Minnesota, Morris, PY&G is in its 24th year of traveling the state tapping researchers, gardening and nursery professionals, educators, and ordinary backyard gardeners for their expertise in horticulture, landscaping, and a variety of gardening topics in a sometimes difficult and frustrating growing region. PY&G has been one of the number one rated programs of national or local origination on Pioneer for the last few years. The program airs Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. January through April, with rebroadcasts Mondays at 1 p.m. and Saturdays at 4:30 p.m.

Pioneer Public Television, a Public Broadcasting System (PBS) affiliate, serves more than 375,000 households across Minnesota, South Dakota, and Iowa.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
