7-22-2008

Gateway opens UMM experience

University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.morris.umn.edu/urel_news

Recommended Citation

http://digitalcommons.morris.umn.edu/urel_news/1151

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the External Relations at University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well. It has been accepted for inclusion in University Relations News Archive by an authorized administrator of University of Minnesota Morris Digital Well. For more information, please contact skulann@morris.umn.edu.
Gateway opens UMM experience

Summary: Twenty-five students of color from six states, three countries and representing a wide range of diversities were welcomed into this year's Gateway program, which motivates students to succeed at UMM.

(July 22, 2008)-The Multi-Ethnic Student Program staff welcomed 25 incoming students of color into the Gateway program on July 14. The students come to the University of Minnesota, Morris from six different states, three countries and represent a wide range of diversities.

The mentors for Gateway 2008 are Meng Her, Tara Myers, Katie Froiland and Ciana Cullens. The mentors are exceptional individuals who feel passionate about the mission of Gateway.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship. Learn more about Morris at morris.umn.edu or call 888-866-3382.