FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Morris Holds Fourth Founders Scholar Forum on the Liberal Arts

The topic for the forum is “Making the Case for the Liberal Arts: So You Want to Change the World?”

MORRIS, Minnesota (November 2, 2016)—The fourth annual Founders Scholar Forum on the Liberal Arts will take place on Tuesday, November 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Humanities Fine Arts Recital Hall. The topic for the forum is “Making the Case for the Liberal Arts: So You Want to Change the World?”

Panelists will each address a particular audience (e.g., parents, friends, citizens, etc.) about the topic. The faculty and student presentations will be followed by a dialogue with the audience.

Panel participants will include Tammy Berberi, associate professor of French; Jennifer Deane, professor of history; Margaret Kuchenreuther, associate professor of biology; Ahnaf “Khondoker” Prio ’20, Dhaka, Bangladesh, physics and pre-engineering; Jessye Rodgers ’17, Saint Paul, English with a studio art minor; and Fiona “Zongwen” Wu ’18, Shanghai, China, environmental studies. The event will be moderated by Coco “Colette” Millard ’19, Saint Paul, Morris Campus Student Association secretary of academic affairs.

The Founders Fund was established with gifts from a private donor in honor of the founding faculty of the University of Minnesota, Morris on the occasion of UMM’s 40th birthday.
